

Understanding the Asshole Tautology

The following circular argument is the type the assholes of the world repeat to themselves as the means of maintaining a permanent asshole status. This delusional state is structured as an infinite loop, maintained by an induced trance state, designed specifically to help the asshole using it to avoid the perilous threat of self awareness.

This trance state is maintained basically by blaming the asshole's victims for what the asshole does, so that the asshole can keep right ON being the asshole, without that state being disrupted by annoying critical thought. The asshole's mantra sounds something like this, which I will write out below, and is directed either AT the victim, or ABOUT the victim, (slightly less brave asshole in the second case) generally delivered through the asshole's buddy system. (The Asshole Community)

The assholes reinforce the delusions of other assholes you see, like being in a special societal "club." Assholes like to join Asshole organizations which define themselves by a variety of names. Still the only real requirement for joining one is being an asshole with some expressed hope of becoming an even better Asshole. Some of these clubs like to club, other clubs, as a means of affirming their asshole status. This too can lead to a circular clubbing of clubs.

So how does the truly efficient asshole think in order to do what s/he does so successfully?

Something like this: He or she routinely says, implies, or acts on the idea, "I wouldn't be doing this to you if you weren't making me/causing me to do it." This defends the asshole by blaming the victim and is, in fact, the premise of thought for any and ALL actions to follow. So this means that as the victim, if you:

1. Try to ignore the asshole, s/he will try even harder to get a distress reaction.
2. If you produce a distress reaction the asshole sees this as justification for targeting you, as in the asshole mindset, you are reacting as s/he wants you to react.
3. If you try to fight back and act just LIKE the asshole to see how s/he likes it, again s/he "wins" the asshole contest s/he is in with him/herself, because s/he got you to react by acting just LIKE him/her, which to him/her "proves" this behavior exists, potentially in everyone, which AGAIN justifies the asshole. Of course IF you behave just like one, all this really does is INCREASE the asshole population; by one...
4. If you try to reason with him/her about what s/he is doing then that "proves" to him/her that you are just "stupid" and getting what you "deserve" since logic, or reason, has nothing to do with this.

Assholes HAVE to see themselves as "winners" and "superiors" and so they

DO. Reality has nothing to do with it.

Now please note that no matter WHAT you say, or don't say, or what action you take, or don't take, the asshole will perceive him or herself, as ALWAYS RIGHT in order to justify him/herself for BEING an ASSHOLE. So whatever you say or do is actually irrelevant to the asshole. Got that?

Why do assholes do this?

Because this is what assholes do, and that's the only REASON they need.

So how do you deal with them?

The only way you can deal with an asshole is by exposing the asshole's GAME and then observing them closely, while they play it out, not unlike playing out a line when you have a barracuda on the hook. It works a bit better if you just closely observe the asshole while in pairs, or small groups of victims, since assholes tend to target people when they are alone, so that there are no witnesses to their asshole performance. However, you can't talk ABOUT them when you are alone, as they will assume that you are talking to yourself. Then they will become even BIGGER assholes. Assholes don't know when you are talking to THEM, because their self-delusion makes them psychologically deaf to it.

While you observe the asshole's performance it might be helpful to consult this written explanation to determine which asshole behaviour the asshole is engaged in at any given time. Soon you will be able to spot "the game" plan without any doubt or confusion.

Always remember that the one thing you cannot do is say NOTHING. We must talk about this publicly so that people everywhere will recognize it when they experience it. We don't even have to name the asshole specifically, UNLESS of course the victim is physically threatened in some way, but we DO have to expose this "game" on the metaphysical level (conceptually, apart from concrete details) so that others having a similar experience can understand it, connected to their OWN specific concrete details. This will help others solve their OWN puzzle, even if the concrete details connected TO the metaphysical abstraction are very different.

Knowledge and awareness is the antidote for the asshole epidemic. It empowers the victims at the same time is disempowers the assholes.

Assholes need reactions from victims to continue in their game. Give them the ONLY reactions they don't want. Be amazed that it is even POSSIBLE for anyone to think and behave the way the asshole does, and to be able to think of him/herself as a superior human being for doing so.

Spread awareness and end the asshole's GAME. It is ALWAYS about the violation of boundaries in one way, or another.

Now please, feel free to download this file for free, as a handout for open, free distribution to all the victims of assholes that you have ever met, yourself included, who have up until now, looked for the logic, reason, or "good" intentions in what the assholes of the world, do. Logic or reason has nothing to do with it. Always remember...though there is no reason IN what an asshole does, there is always a reason FOR it, even if the reason is not a reasonable one.
